Brief about an Activity	On 19th September 2025 the Aagaz 2.0 Installation Ceremony and Freshers Party marked a vibrant beginning to the academic year 2025 for the CSE department at KDK College of Engineering, Nagpur. The event was hosted under the banner of Forum Piesel, the student forum dedicated to fostering departmental unity, innovation, and engagement. The ceremony commenced with the formal installation of newly elected student office bearers followed by a lively freshers party designed to welcome new students and build lasting camaraderie among the batch. The event featured speeches by faculty, interactive performances, and activities aimed at motivating students and encouraging their active participation in departmental and extracurricular initiatives. This ceremony not only celebrated new leadership but created an energetic platform for freshmen to integrate seamlessly with seniors and faculty members.
Objectives	Formal Installation of Forum Leadership to appoint and acknowledge the student office bearers for 2025-26, thereby ensuring structured governance and participation in departmental activities. To warmly welcome new students, helping them feel included and motivated in their new academic environment. Promote interaction between seniors, juniors, faculty to foster a friendly and cohesive departmental community. Inspire students to actively engage in academic, cultural, and technical activities throughout the year as a key student body within the CSE department.
Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The forum office bearers were installed and officially recognized. 2. Freshers were warmly welcomed into the department, creating a sense of inclusion and enthusiasm. 3. Departmental bonding improved, encouraging student engagement for future activities. 4. The event fostered a positive atmosphere, setting the stage for a collaborative academic year.
